

Script for Public Service Announcement based on The Giver

Celebrate Your Unique Difference

What if you looked out of the window and the world was flat
and there was no music?

What if.....
Every house was a cookie cutter house,
and we all went down the same path.

There was no color,
nothing to see.
We were all the same.

We couldn't distinguish between green or red,
or orange or blue.

When we were twelve,
"What will I be chosen as?"
We wondered what will our world be.

We had no books to read.
"Thank you for your childhood"
"Thank you for your childhood"

You can be different.
Be yourself.
"I can be different"
"I can be myself"
